Professional Staff

Our professional staff are integral to our firm and its sustained success. We share in our lawyers' high standards, innovative problem solving, and commitment to excellence.

As one of the largest single-office firms in the country, we offer our professionals the best of all worlds – sophisticated and challenging work, cutting-edge technology and resources, formal training programs, and a collaborative, welcoming and spirited environment that you will be proud to call your professional home. The people you meet at NGE will be your co-workers, mentors and peers, and because of the supportive and collaborative culture at the firm, people here make friends for life. We invest in our professional staff and reward their contributions with competitive salaries and benefits and a flexible work environment in which they can grow and develop. It is no wonder that so many of our professional staff have very long records of service with the firm.
