Wills & Trusts Planning

OVERVIEW

Astute and leading-edge, the lawyers in our Wills and Trusts Planning group advise clients on wills, trusts and other creative planning mechanisms to achieve their testamentary goals.

Sensitive to the tax, estate administration and related financial issues that impact business value and personal worth, our goal is to develop sophisticated will and trust instruments for transferring wealth from one generation to the next.

Our significant background working with high-net worth individuals and their families gives us laser-focused knowledge of the issues involved in preserving and maximizing wealth. We draw on the insights of our renowned corporate, tax and private wealth practices to structure a lifelong safety net of will and trust documents that provide a legacy of protection for decedent and beneficiaries alike.
