Kate Nye Joins Panel Discussion on Young Attorneys Navigating Employment During a Recession

On Thursday, June 11, NGE Intellectual Property partner Kate Nye will participate in the panel discussion "Perspectives on Navigating Employment During a Recession," hosted by the IPLAC Young Members' Committee, which is co-chaired by NGE associate Andrew Wood. The panel will discuss their experiences navigating the job market in the economic downturn that followed the 2008 financial crisis, and what law students and young attorneys can do to best position themselves for landing a job.
