Evolving Insurance Law Responses to the Global Pandemic

On Tuesday, February 16, Insurance Policyholder partner Seth Lamden participated in the webinar "Evolving Insurance Law Responses to the Global Pandemic," hosted by the American College of Coverage Counsel (ACCC) and the Seton Hall University School of Law. In his panel, "Liability Insurance Disputes – Directors & Officers Insurance," Seth discussed how liability claims have been slow to emerge from this pandemic, but as the full economic consequences of the pandemic become clearer, claims may be brought against directors and officers that may trigger D&O coverage disputes.
