

Arbitration & Mediation

Some of our most significant and high-profile cases involve arbitration and mediation. We apply our powerful litigation know-how to resolve disputes with pre-litigation mediation and arbitration proceedings. We represent public and private companies and individuals before arbitration panels and in mediations in areas including labor and employment proceedings, securities and commodities issues and commercial disputes of all stripes.

Widely recognized for our top-ranked litigation practice, we collaborate with our clients to find the most strategic and cost-effective legal solutions that meet their business objectives. To minimize protracted litigation proceedings, we represent employers, financial services firms, and insurance policyholders in arbitrations before all major forums including the American Arbitration Association, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, and JAMS. We offer certified mediation services and work with leading national mediators. Our purview encompasses a variety of arenas and sectors, with notable strength in financial services, employment, intellectual property (patents), insurance (coverage) and environmental law (Superfund, toxic tort and enforcement actions).
