

Estate Planning

Neal Gerber Eisenberg is a go-to law firm for the estate planning needs of high-net worth individuals and family groups in Chicago and throughout the U.S. Our nationally-recognized lawyers combine a unique blend of business, finance and tax counsel with legendary client service.

Private Business Focus

The firm's private business focus allows us to provide leading-edge counsel to some of the wealthiest families in the U.S. and abroad on the transition of business leadership and wealth across generations. We find innovative ways to ensure that our clients' business interests and personal lives are protected at every step.

Integrated Approach

Our integrated approach gives us exceptional insights into the complex legal aspects of estate planning and wealth preservation. We serve as strategic advisors to wealthy families and entrepreneurs on critical business decisions and guide these clients on the preservation of wealth throughout their lives.

Recognizing the need to protect assets, be tax efficient and control the growth of future wealth, we integrate will and trust directives with charitable endeavors and savvy fiduciary and tax minimization strategies. Our goal is to provide innovative strategies with sophisticated planning mechanisms to seamlessly fulfill personal vision and family goals in transferring wealth and business interests to future generations.
