Charlie Shih Speaks at the Taiwanese Junior Chamber of Commerce Chicago's Annual Summit

Intellectual Property associate Charlie Shih recently attended the Taiwanese Junior Chamber of Commerce Chicago's (TJCCC) Annual Summit, which took place on June 29 in Chicago, IL. This annual event aims to connect cross-generational Taiwanese communities with the public, showcasing how "Made in Taiwan" can influence future changes. Charlie presented the panel discussion "Legal Consideration for New Business Ventures," which covered essential considerations when starting a business and securing copyrights, trademarks, and patents. Charlie was joined by John Wang of Salas Wang LLC.
