Labor & Employment Symposium: Key Updates for Employers

On May 11, the Neal Gerber Eisenberg Labor & Employment Team hosted a symposium taking a comprehensive look into recent developments in labor and employment law, including restrictive covenant agreements, workplace and hiring technologies, wage & hour and classification issues and traditional labor/ union issues. The event was geared toward in-house counsel, human resources and people leaders who must be aware of the ever-changing labor and employment law landscape to guide their workplace's daily operations efficiently.
