#MeToo: What the Movement Means for the Legal Profession

On October 25, 2018, Alex Dominguez participated in the panel “#MeToo: What the Movement Means for the Legal Profession,” presented by the ABA Section of Litigation Women in Products Liability Subcommittee of the Products Liability Committee. The panel discussed lawyers’ ethical obligations to act appropriately and report harassing behavior, how to address a client who is the harasser, and practical tips for responding when a client raises harassment concerns.
