What Constitutes a “Claim” Under a Claims-Made Policy?

On March 6, Paul Walker-Bright spoke on the roundtable discussion “What Constitutes a ‘Claim’ Under a Claims-Made Policy?” at the ABA Section of Litigation’s 2020 Insurance Coverage Litigation Committee CLE Seminar, held in Tucson, AZ. The discussion focused on recent trends and rulings, along with seemingly easy scenarios that one could determine there is not a claim under the policy, but really is.
