Angela Elbert Recognized as One of Chicago's Notable Women Lawyers 2018

Neal Gerber Eisenberg is pleased to announce that Angela R. Elbert, chair of the Insurance Policyholder practice group, has been named to Chicago's Notable Women Lawyers 2018 presented by Crain's Custom Media.

This year's list honors 150 legal industry leaders who were nominated and then selected by Crain's Custom Media. According to Crain's, the recognized women are well-regarded for their practice of law, serve as role models and mentors to other female attorneys, and hold leadership positions in both professional and community organizations.

"Angela's professional success and reputation among her clients and in the community are representative of what it means to be a lawyer at Neal Gerber Eisenberg," said Scott J. Fisher, Managing Partner. "Her constant pursuit of excellence in the practice of law and her power to make a difference in the lives of the others make her an inspiration to her colleagues and to the community."
