Jason Kim Acknowledged as One of Chicago's Notable Minority Lawyers 2018

Neal Gerber Eisenberg is pleased to announce that Jason C. Kim, a partner in the Labor & Employment practice group, has been named to Chicago's Notable Minority Lawyers 2018 presented by Crain's Chicago Business.

This year's list honors nearly 60 legal industry leaders who were nominated and then selected by Crain's Chicago Business. According to Crain's, the recognized honorees are "advancing the causes of justice and equality" and "mentoring a diverse generation of lawyers to join them on this path."

"Jason personifies our core values in his client-centered approach to achieving the best outcomes for our clients, and in his leadership in the development and advancement of minority attorneys within the firm and in the community," said Scott J. Fisher, Managing Partner.
