Neal Gerber Eisenberg Expands Real Estate Practice with Return of David Theysen

Neal Gerber Eisenberg (NGE) is pleased to announce the return of David (Dave) Theysen as a partner in the firm's Real Estate practice group. Dave rejoins NGE after previously working at the firm from 2011 to 2019, rising from associate to partner during his tenure.

Dave brings extensive experience representing clients in sophisticated real estate transactions, including acquisitions, dispositions, leasing, and financing. He also advises private real estate investment firms, publicly traded companies, banks, real estate investment trusts (REITs), and high-net-worth individuals engaged in transactions across the country.

"We are thrilled to welcome Dave back to NGE," said Bobby Gerber, Managing Partner of NGE. "Dave is a highly respected attorney whose deep knowledge and collaborative spirit make him an exceptional asset to our firm and our clients. His return reflects the strength of our culture and the value we place on long-term relationships."

Dave also has significant experience managing transactions involving retail centers, office buildings, multi-family properties, industrial facilities, mixed-use projects, and senior-living facilities, including purchasing, selling, and financing multi-state portfolio transactions.

"Dave's return is a significant boost to our Real Estate group," said Leah Schleicher, chair of the firm's Real Estate practice group. "His strategic insight and practical approach to deal-making will be invaluable to our clients. I'm excited to partner with him again as we continue to grow our practice."

Dave received his J.D. magna cum laude from Indiana University Maurer School of Law and B.A. with distinction from Indiana University Bloomington.
