NGE Achieves 100% Participation in the Investing in Justice Campaign

For the fifth consecutive year, 100% of our firm's attorneys made personal contributions to The Chicago Bar Foundation's Investing in Justice Campaign. This unique campaign – the largest of its kind in the country – raises funds to provide critical legal assistance to tens of thousands of local people in need, with contributions going directly to more than 30 local pro bono and legal aid organizations in the Chicagoland area.
