Neal Gerber & Eisenberg is excited to announce our partnership with Modern Health. Starting today, we are partnering with Modern Health to provide our attorneys, business professionals and their families with comprehensive mental health and well-being support.

At our firm, we believe that supporting our people means caring for the whole person—not just their professional growth, but their emotional, social and mental well-being too. The demands of the legal profession are unique, and we recognize the importance of providing resources that help our attorneys, business professionals and their families thrive both personally and professionally.

What sets Modern Health apart is its evidence-based, inclusive, and adaptive care model. The platform meets you where you are—whether you're proactively building resilience, navigating life's challenges, or seeking support during difficult times. We have chosen Modern Health because we want our people to feel empowered to take care of their mental health. We recognize that investing in well-being is not just the right thing to do—it's essential for maintaining a healthy, engaged and high-performing workplace.
