NGE Represents GLS Capital LLC in $345 Million Debut Fund

NGE served as fund formation counsel to litigation finance investment firm GLS Capital LLC in their debut fund, which announced on Monday it raised more than $345 million in capital commitments from investors. Under the leadership of partner Michael Gray, leader of the firm's Fund Formation and Investment Management practice, the NGE team consisted of partner Betsy Thelen and counsel David Presser, with assistance from partner Wesley Nissen and associate Austin Redman.

Founded in 2018 by David Spiegel, Adam Gill and Jamison Lynch, GLS focuses on investing in complex commercial litigation and arbitration matters, as well as intellectual property disputes in both the technology and pharmaceutical industries.
