

Firm News

07/09/2018

Nicholas M. Miller Named President-elect of the Chicago/Midwest Chapter of the Turnaround Management Association

Nicholas M. Miller has been named President-elect of the Turnaround Management Association's Chicago/Midwest Chapter for 2017. Nick is a partner in Neal Gerber Eisenberg's Financial Restructuring & Bankruptcy practice group.

Nick's selection as President-elect follows many years of leadership within the TMA. Among other roles, Nick has served as Vice President of Programming, chapter Secretary, and co-chair of the chapter's Continuing Education Committee and NextGen Committee. He currently serves as a co-chair of the TMA's 2017 Mid-American Regional Conference.

Nick, along with fellow Neal Gerber Eisenberg Partner Mark A. Berkoff, have the rare honor of winning multiple national TMA awards for their work with distressed companies. These awards include the Mid-Size Transaction of the Year Award for their work with Morris Publishing Group, and the Small Company Turnaround of the Year Award for their work with AeroCare Medical Transport System, Inc.

"The TMA is the preeminent organization for turnaround professionals, and I am honored to be a part of it," Miller said. "I look forward to working with the rest of the chapter leadership to provide our members with another

CLIENT SERVICES

Financial Restructuring

Bankruptcy & Creditors' Rights

NEAL
GERBER
EISENBERG

year of high quality programming and educational events.”

The Turnaround Management Association is a global non-profit organization comprised of turnaround and corporate renewal professionals with more than 8,300 members in 55 chapters including 32 in North America. TMA members are a professional community that seeks to strengthen the global economy by working to save distressed businesses, assist management to navigate off-plan events, and help healthy companies avoid similar pitfalls.