Olivia Luk Bedi Appointed to Racial Justice Diversity Committee for Northern District of Illinois

Intellectual Property partner Olivia Luk Bedi was recently selected to serve on the newly-created Racial Justice Diversity Committee for the Northern District of Illinois. The Committee was created to review any procedures or practices that might be helpful in aiding the Court to address racial disparities. The Committee will seek to evaluate methods that may help overcome any barriers to achieving the goal of equal justice for all, and will release a public report to the Court and bar with its recommendations.
