Three Intellectual Property Attorneys Recognized as IP Stars

Neal Gerber Eisenberg (NGE) is pleased to announce that three of its intellectual property attorneys have been named in Managing IP's 2025 edition of IP Stars, a directory that recognizes top intellectual property professionals worldwide.

Life Sciences partners Emer Simic and Jeff Ward obtained the "IP Star – Patent" ranking, and Intellectual Property practice partner Tony McShane obtained the "IP Star – Trademark" ranking.

The firm launched its Intellectual Property practice group in 2002 with just three attorneys. Today, the group consists of approximately 33 attorneys supporting clients in managing, prosecuting, and enforcing global trademark portfolios for cutting-edge technology and Fortune 500 companies, as well as obtaining significant litigation victories for clients in Chicago and beyond. It also has a corps of experienced paralegals, a robust docket team, 12 legal secretaries and project assistants, and a dedicated IP operations director who assists in managing portfolios and litigation.
