Three Neal Gerber Eisenberg Attorneys Named to Crain's Chicago Business 2023 Notable Litigators & Trial Attorneys

Neal Gerber Eisenberg is pleased to announce that partners Scott Fisher, Tonya Newman and Jonathan Quinn have all been selected for Crain's Chicago Business 2023 Notable Litigators & Trial Attorneys.

The list honors 74 litigators and trial attorneys who have affected change in their roles or practice areas including pro bono work, mentorship, diversity and inclusion initiatives, and professional or civic leadership. The Crain's article points to the honorees' achievement in the "complex, high-stakes world of litigation."

Scott is a trial lawyer who concentrates his practice on complex commercial litigation, with a particular emphasis on class actions. Tonya serves as chair of the Litigation & Disputes practice group and represents clients in complex civil litigation, products liability, and insurance coverage matters. Jonathan is a trial lawyer who focuses on complex, high-exposure commercial litigation matters.
