Andrew May and Angela Elbert Featured on ACC Chicago's Podcast "It's All Hearsay"

Litigation partner Andrew May and Insurance Policyholder partner Angela Elbert were recently featured on ACC Chicago's podcast "It's All Hearsay," where lawyers contribute current news, practical tips and real-life stories on legal issues relevant to in-house attorneys.

Andrew and Angela discuss insurance coverage claims under the Illinois Biometric Information Privacy Act (BIPA), including the 2021 Illinois Supreme Court case West Bend Mutual Insurance Co. v. Krishna Tan Schaumburg Inc., where the court held that commercial general liability insurance for "personal injury" provided coverage for BIPA lawsuits.
