Diana Koppang Quoted in ABA Journal on Litigation Analytics Study

Diana Koppang, Director of Research & Competitive Intelligence for NGE, was recently quoted in the article "Not All Litigation Analytics Products Are Created Equal," published in the August-September 2020 issue of the ABA Journal. In the article, Diana discusses the findings from a study by academic and law firm librarians comparing the answers of federal litigation analytics products to a set of real-world questions. Diana also presented on this study in February 2020 at Law.com's Legalweek Legaltech conference in New York City.
