Jonathan Ksiazek Quoted in Law360 Article, "Robust Pay Equity Clauses Grab Spotlight In $15M Snap Deal"

Jonathan Ksiazek, partner in the firm's Labor and Employment practice, was quoted in the Law360 article "Robust Pay Equity Clauses Grab Spotlight In $15M Snap Deal." This article discusses how Snap Inc. reached a $15 million settlement with California's Civil Rights Department to resolve sex bias allegations following a three-year investigation. The investigation found that women at this technology company were paid less, faced unwelcome sexual advances, and experienced retaliation after raising complaints. The multimillion-dollar settlement requires Snap to hire an independent consultant to review policies surrounding pay and promotion, appoint a third-party monitor to oversee compliance, and commit to implementing pay transparency practices, potentially setting a precedent for future pay equity laws.
