Kevin O'Connor Interviewed by BioPharma-Reporter on BioTech Patents

Intellectual Property partner Kevin O'Connor was recently interviewed by BioPharma-Reporter for the article, "Amgen v Sanofi Ruling: It Is Time to Kiss Goodbye to Broad, Functional Patent Claims for Antibodies." In the article, Kevin discusses a U.S. court's recent decision to find in favor of Sanofi and invalidate Amgen's broad antibody patent claims, which has biotech manufacturers concerned about how to preserve their IP.
