

Publication

---

03/20/2020

---

CLIENT SERVICES

Labor & Employment
COVID-19 Insights

Illinois Governor JB Pritzker's Issues "Stay At Home" Order – read here

On March 20, 2020, Illinois Governor JB Pritzker issued a "Stay at Home" order to take effect from 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 21st through the end of Tuesday, April 7th. Individuals are to stay at home, and non-essential activities, including non-essential business activities and operations, are prohibited during this time.

Click here to view the Executive Order in its entirety.

Be sure to review the description of "essential businesses and operations" on page 5, paragraph 12 of the Order.

If you have any questions regarding this stay at home order or other Labor and Employment issues, please do not hesitate to contact a member of our Labor & Employment group or your Neal Gerber Eisenberg attorney.

---

The content above is based on information current at the time of its publication and may not reflect the most recent developments or guidance. Neal Gerber Eisenberg LLP provides this content for general informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice, and does not create an attorney-client relationship. You should seek advice from professional advisers with respect to your particular circumstances.

