The Most Important Property Tax Exemption Decision in Years

Steve Pflaum, Tom McNulty, Tonya Newman and Collette Woghiren, attorneys in the firm's Litigation group, recently co-authored the article "The Most Important Property Tax Exemption Decision in Years," published in the Illinois Association of Healthcare Attorneys' (IAHA) Newsletter. Steve, Tom, Tonya and Collette discuss the recent Illinois Appellate Court decision in Keystone Montessori School to invalidate a tax agreement between a municipality and a not-for-profit school, and the implications of this decision for Illinois hospitals.
