The Private Trust Company — The Trustee Solution for the 21st Century?

Neal Gerber Eisenberg partner and Private Wealth Services Practice Group chair Lawrence I. Richman authored an article entitled “The Private Trust Company — The Trustee Solution for the 21st Century?” that appears in the July/August 2006 edition of CCH’s Journal of Passthrough Entities. Mr. Richman examines how the technological changes that marked the last two decades have upended the traditional notions of trust situs and trust administration.
