

Video

---

06/25/2025

Behind the Build: Our Three-Story Staircase

As we build out our new office space, one of the most exciting milestones has been the installation of our custom internal staircase—a striking feature that connects all three floors of our workspace. This time-lapse video captures the craftsmanship, coordination, and care that went into constructing this central element of our environment. Take a behind-the-scenes look at how it all came together.