

Faith A. Stachulski

Associate | Litigation & Disputes

OVERVIEW

Faith is an associate in the Litigation & Disputes practice group and represents clients in a range of complex litigation matters. She assists with drafting memoranda, conducting research, reviewing pleadings, and preparing motions to dismiss. She also performs document reviews for clients on discovery projects.

Prior to joining NGE, Faith served as a law clerk to the Hon. M. Casey Rodgers of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Florida, where she worked on various civil litigation-related matters. After graduating law school, Faith was an associate attorney at an international law firm in Chicago, advising multinational companies on global and domestic transactional matters.

While in law school, Faith served as the Executive Editor for the University of Illinois Law Review and worked as an extern for the City of Chicago's Administrative Hearings Unit. Dedicated to education and her community, Faith established The Julia Brown & Theresa Stachulski Scholarship at Resurrection College Prep High School in Chicago.
